

WELCOME TO BCS ADMISSIONS!

I am delighted to come alongside your family as you make one of the most important decisions about your student's education. Please allow me to assist you through the process of discovering a school that best fits your family and serves your student well.

Highlights of a Bellevue Christian School education...

- Redemptive: Preparing students to respond to God and human need.
- Rigorous: Challenging students through academically demanding programs that develop critical thinking and compel action.
- Relational: Giving and receiving loving support through a community of families.
- Relevant: Developing lifelong learners to become Christian leaders wherever God calls them to serve.

BCS is a caring, supportive and fun community that warmly welcomes you and your family. I am here to help you with the application process and encourage you to ask for assistance any time along the way. The admissions process is as follows:

- Request an Information/Application packet and a Tour, Student Classroom Visit, Viking for a Day, Open House
- Submit online application w/fee (www.bellevuechristian.org -> Admissions page) and supplemental documents
- BCS Admissions Team processes and screens completed application file
- Family Interview; family is contacted regarding status (within 24 hours of interview)
- Upon acceptance and based on availability, family completes and submits enrollment contract, fees and forms
