SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Scott Bioren Memorial Scholarship Application

Scott Bioren attended BCS from 2nd grade until his graduation in 1988. He felt a strong attachment to the BCS community as a student and alumnus. He was grateful for the opportunity to be educated at BCS and to benefit from, and to contribute to, the community after graduation. He had a particular fondness for the BCS soccer program both as a player (elected captain and MVP) and later as a coach leading BCS to two state championships.

On August 16, 1995, while building flight hours by riding in the cockpit of a routine commercial air cargo flight, an uncontrollable fire in the right engine of the aircraft resulted in the downing of the plane and the taking of Scott's life. This scholarship is made possible by the gracious contributions of many people who knew Scott personally and those who desire to help provide financial assistance to students and families who desire a BCS education and have an interest or gifting in soccer or other athletic programs.
