Subject Line: Please Help Me Reach My Three Points Jog-A-Thon Fundraising Goal!

Dear (First Name),

As you may already know, I'm participating in my school's Jog-A-Thon on Friday, September 27th. I'm really excited about helping the Bellevue Christian Three Points campus raise money from many needed items to enhance our student and classroom learning experiences – so wish me luck!

A big part of the money raised during Jog-A-Thon will be used to for chapel/MPR improvements, classroom collaboration spaces, new workroom dye cut system, campus drinking fountains, physical education equipment for all grade level and funding for the Teaching for Transformation program.

We will also be donating 10% of funds raised to help others by giving 5% to Eastside Academy, an alternative Christian high school for at-risk youth, and 5% to Ninos Tres Rios, an educational assistance program for children in El Salvador.

I would really appreciate it if you would help sponsor me through my Everyday Hero online fundraising page. I'm aiming to raise (Dollar Amount) which will enable Three Points Elementary to enhance our student and classroom learning experiences, while also helping others. Every dollar counts and I really appreciate your support!
