- Key things we can look out for as catalysts around faith with your children
 - How do we set our kids up to walk w Jesus all the days of their lives

The 5 Catalysts

Think about the catalysts as a trail-mix, a mixed bag. We need them all.

1. Practical Teaching – Deuteronomy 6:4-9

- God is instructing us to have continual conversation. Be intentional.

2. Private Disciplines – Daily devotional time. This looks different for kids. How can they spend time with Jesus? How are you made and how do you connect with God? Important to find the things that help them connect with God. Ie Thru viewing creation

3. Personal Ministry – Regular serving opportunities. Give them the place and space to feel uncomfortable. To rely on God to meet them. Matthew 14:17-18

4. Providential Relationships – People in our children’s lives who are pushing them towards Jesus. Encourage them. Pray for them to have friends that are going to push them towards Jesus. Who are these people? Be intentional.

5. Pivotal Circumstances – God will use pivotal circumstances to move our children faith forward. Stuff happens. We get to choose how we’re going to respond. Harden like an egg in hot water or soften like a potato. Allow space for this.

Philippians 3:12-16

Continue to pray for our kids!
